

I strongly port this petition and urge the FCC to follow this path. It is necessary for you to impliment a strong band plan to prevent the take over of the entire band by the wide modes. If the narrow band modes are to exist you must give them space. Thank you for your time.